STREET CAR INCIDENT.

The car was crowded, every seat was taken, when from out the street a man entered, plain of face.

And, vainly glancing for a place to sit, he saw from door to door No room for even just one more.

When next the bell above us rang A pretty maiden lightly sprang Upon the step and in, and then There was a shrieking of the men

As each one took a gentle slide And made room for her at his side.

And can it be that age must stand While beauty homage can command? And is there in our heart no place For aught except a pretty face?

What funny creatures these men are! We sometimes meet upon the car.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

MARRIAGE BROUGHT HAPPINESS TO THIS COUPLE.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smith Receive Their Fiftieth Anniversary.

Mr. James Smith and Mr. and Mrs. James Ann Bullen, Smith, Mayville, Kentucky, September 20th, 1844. September 20th, 1894.

In "proud" Preston, In "Merrie Old England,"

A half century since, Mr. James Smith and Miss Ann Bullen, in the springtime of life, united their fortunes, "for better or for worse."

Mr. Smith had come to the United States early in the "forties," first stopping in Cincinnati, but soon locating in Mayville.

Returning to England in 1844, he married, bringing his fair bride to his home in the New World, and making this city his residence. And in Mayville they have lived the most of their long and useful lives, and it is no disparagement to say that none have more completely won or firmly retained the esteem of the entire community.

Once resolved that Mayville should be his future home Mr. Smith embarked in business, and for many years he was an active participant in every enterprise that promised the city's good, and in all his undertakings he was encouraged by the counsels of the good wife who has journeyed with him to the fiftieth milestone in a century's march.

Some fifteen years ago he retired from active pursuits, and surrounded by a happy family of children and grandchildren, it has been his delight to spend his time in the home circle.

Last evening was the Fiftieth Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and their hospitable home, No. 134 West second street, was the scene of a joyous gathering—devoted sons with their wives, loving daughters with their husbands, affectionate grandchildren, brothers, sisters—and last of all scores of life-long friends who had come to congratulate the happy host and hostess and wish them yet many, many years of peace and joy.

From 7 to 10 o'clock there was a continuous stream of callers, Mr. and Mrs. Smith being assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Rogers of Mt. Sterling; Mr. John D. Tash of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Thomas H. N. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Pecor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith, Mr. Sam A. Smith of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Smith of Ashland.

In addition to the above members of the family, Mr. Thomas Leyland of Boston, who plays Pythias to Mr. Smith's Damon, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mary Leyland, had come all the way from the "Hub" to grace the occasion.

An excellent orchestra furnished choicest music, the parlors were handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens, and the scene was one of great beauty.

The presents were numerous, handsome and valuable—but more pleasing than all to the recipients were the genuine hand-grasps and good wishes bestowed upon the happy couple.

All the children were present excepting Mrs. John D. Tash of Chicago, and of twenty-one grandchildren only one was absent.

An elegant collation was served, and all unite in saying that it was a most delightful occasion throughout.

The steamer Hudson will leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh Saturday.

The Ledger acknowledges a complimentary to the Mt. Olivet Fair.

Thomas Petters, charged with incendiary, was cleared on trial at Vanceburg.

Miss Adeline Fleig of Ripley and Walter Surran of Covington were married this week.

A new paper, Democratic in politics, is talked of in Vanceburg. Messrs. Jesse Parker and Charles Cox are named as proprietors.

The Boyd County Grand Jury has returned two indictments against Louis Cole, one for murder in the first degree and one for his connection with the recent killing bee in Catlettsburg.

GEORGE REIMAN

SAVED US FROM DISGRACE YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

He Knocked Out a Home Run, the First This Season at the Park—The Game This Afternoon Will Be a Good One.

We went down in defeat, and almost up to the finish it looked like we were also to suffer disgrace.

For that lone, lone score that is credited to Mayville we have George Reiman to thank.

There were two out when he came to bat in the eighth inning. He had already bagged one two-bagger in the game, and everybody looked to him for relief from the gloom that had settled down in the audience, and none were disappointed with his performance.

"Kill it, Georgie, old boy," sang out "Pot" Reiman from the bench, as his brother swung his bat. Tannehill sent one up steaming hot. There was a sharp crack as the bat came in contact with the ball, and away it went over Schroeder's head and into the melon-patch, and a moment later the runner crossed the plate, amidst tremendous applause, with the first home run ever made at the park.

The Manager and Directors embraced, the audience went wild and Charlie Huff wrot for joy.

It was a terrific hit and well deserved the applause it received.

Tannehill twirled for the visitors, and while he was hit hard, his field, with but one exception, gave him effortless support. His infield got everything that came in their territory, while his outfield pulled down a number of hits that looked safe for two or more bases.

Weller pitched a great game, and had been accorded the same support Tannehill received, would have made the game a pretty one.

The visitors got their only earned run in their half of the third. Grooves missed three good ones and sat down. Bertie lifted one into left for a double and scored on Hall's drive past third for two bases. Hellemann flew out to Frank and McGowan to G. Reiman.

Another one of Knorr's men went around the circuit in the third. Grooves worked his base on balls. Bertie smashed one into center for a bag. Hall's hit to short forced Grooves out at third. Hellemann's hit to short forced Hall out at second. P. Reiman threw low to Cox in trying to make a double and Bertie scored the slab. McGowan sent up a skyrocket to Wadsworth for an out.

The visitors were presented with three more tallies in the sixth. Hellemann bunted and beat it out. Wadsworth missed McGowan's fly. Schroeder died on a pop-up fly to Cox. Tenley fanned out. Tannehill jolted one into right for a single and Hellemann scored. Tannehill took second on the throw in, went to third on a passed ball and scored on a wild pitch. Wadsworth retired the side by capturing Knorr's fly.

The Knorrites were given two more runs in the seventh. Grooves led off with a single over third. Bertie's fly was easy for Wadsworth. Hall went out on a fly to Cox. Hellemann pushed one into center for a single. McGowan hit a slow one to third. G. Reiman fumbled and Grooves touched the rubber. Schroeder hit to center for two bases and Hellemann scored. Frank, by field fending and a good throw, caught McGowan at the plate.

The locals got their only run in the eighth. Cox hit to right and Knorr muffed it. Cox was caught trying to pile second. Frank hit to third for an out at first. G. Reiman hit to center for a home run. Delzel singled into right. Taylor ended the agony on a hit to second for an out at first.

ECHEOS FROM THE GAME.

Wadsworth's two-bagger was a beauty. The game this afternoon will be called at 3:30 p. m.

Jacks Delzel was all through the game yesterday as usual.

Our boys hit Tannehill hard, but we were tough to win.

Get 'em together this afternoon, Captain Reiman, and let us make it hot and home.

Knorr showed excellent judgment in picking out his team. There is not a weak spot in it.

The locals will work like Trojans to land a victory this afternoon. The Friday attendance has always been good and today promises to be no exception.

Weller faced the hardest hitting team that has been here this season. The game Knorr's boys played yesterday would beat some of the National League teams.

John Knorr is not only a great pitcher but a gentlemanly player as well. John is well known here and his friends are legion. We are always glad to see his team win except when they play our boys.

The same teams play again this afternoon. Knorr will be in the box for the visitors and George Reiman will oppose him, and our boys promise to turn the tables on the visitors by putting up an errorless game.

Ashland was disappointed by the Shans, who were advertised to play there yesterday. Manager Bryan went for the locals to fill the date. Our boys would have gladly accepted the offer had they not had games here.

DENNY FOR CONGRESS.

The Seventh District Republicans Name a Committee for Denny.

The Fayette county Republicans met in Convention and elected forty-five delegates to the District Convention, which meets in Lexington on Wednesday, September 26th.

The delegates were instructed to cast the vote as a whole for Judge George Denny, Jr., as the Republican nominee for Congress from the Seventh District of Kentucky against W. C. Owens, recently nominated by the Democrats over Colonel Breckinridge.

This insures him the nomination, as private advisers indicate that Scott, Owen, Henry and Oldham counties instructed for him.

In fact, no other candidate is seriously considered, and the race is now between Denny and Owens for Breckinridge's seat in Congress.

Denny is an old campaigner, a man of powerful physique, a splendid orator and fearless in the Courtroom and on the stump.

He has to overcome odds of seven thousand.

PARIS WEDDING.

In Which Well Known Mayville Parties Shared the Honors.

One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in Paris was solemnized at the Episcopal Church Tuesday evening, the contracting parties being Mr. Benjamin B. Spears, son of Mr. Henry Spears, and Miss Olive E. Current, daughter of W. H. Current, Rev. Hallam officiating.

Professor Gutzel presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march in his own inimitable style.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Mr. Hamlet C. Sharp of this city, cousin of the bride, where she was met by the groom.

The bride was elegantly attired in cream satin, Paris mill overdress, lace trimmings and bridal veil, diamond ornaments.

The ushers were John Ireland, Dr. Frank Fithian, Mr. Lee of Carlisle and Llewellyn Spears, and the bridesmaids Miss Alice Spears and Miss Amelia Lee of Carlisle.

The attendants were Rudolph Davis and Mrs. Thomas East, Master Windsor Sharp, ten-year-old son of H. C. Sharp, carried the wedding ring on a silver waiter, and was accompanied by the four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Thomas East, who carried a bride's bouquet.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and growing plants, a large and fashionable audience witnessing the ceremony.

Mr. Hamlet Sharp gave the bride away.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Spears left for New Albany, Ind., to visit Mrs. Culbertson, aunt of the groom.

WAGES REDUCED.

Western Glass Workers Agree to a 25 Per Cent. Reduction.

A conference of the Western window-glass manufacturers and their workmen was held at Pittsburgh recently, which resulted in a settlement of the wage question on the basis of a reduction of 25 per cent. This agreement was reached only after long and frequent sessions, in which were considered an endless number of propositions from both the manufacturers and their employees.

The joint committee, after a long and fruitless conference, appointed a sub-committee, consisting of H. Sellers McKee and Joel G. Sayre for the manufacturers and Messrs. Eberhardt and Thomas Unks for the workers. The committee decided to recommend to the whole committee that a settlement be made on the straight list practically as proposed by the workers, and compromising on the amount of the reduction by making it 25 per cent. off the general scale of 20 per cent., as decided upon by the workers, leaving the 10 per cent. advance to be counted on the gatherings before the 25th per cent. was taken off.

The report was received by the full committee and the same agreed accordingly. This is an important item in the wages, and one that was acceded to by the Workers' Committee with a great deal of reluctance; but trade is dull, prices low, and manufacturers express little anxiety to start the workers' wages. The workers reasoned that as a large number of them have suffered from a long season of idleness, and needed work badly, it was better to bow to the necessity of the times than to wait in idleness for better times to come.

On the other hand, the manufacturers demanded and expected to get a much larger reduction, as they say it is required by the reduced tariff, but in a spirit of compromise they accepted the settlement as recommended by the sub-committee. The manufacturers fear they will not be able to compete with foreign prices, and a number of the factories will not start up.

Under the fire of these Democratic documents the Democratic party wilted.

Objections to a Brave Soldier.

A young Sergeant distinguished himself by his gallantry at Doullon and was recommended for promotion. He was summoned to appear before a military board at Washington and closely questioned by West Point graduates. None of his answers were satisfactory. When the report reached President Lincoln, he suggested for a moment, laid the paper on his desk, then taking one gaunt knee in his hands said: "I don't know what to do with this case. Here's a young fellow who knows nothing of the science of losing battles. He doesn't even know the technical name of the fortification on which he ran up the Stars and Stripes in the face of the enemy." He thought a moment, then indorsed the report.

"Give this man a Captain's commission."

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of THE Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by them at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
